Millburn Magic Tryout Dates Announced

Today the Millburn Magic announced open tryout dates ahead of the 2009 Women's Premier Soccer League (WPSL) season. The Millburn-based team are the Northern New Jersey representatives of the WPSL, representing the highest level of amateur women's soccer in the United States.

Tryouts will be held on Sunday December 21st and Saturday January 10th, 2-4pm, both at Millburn High School. Tryouts are the first step to representing the local Millburn area at the highest amateur level in the Nation.

With considerable interest already from players across the area, the 2009 season promises to be an exciting one for Magic, entering their second season in the WPSL. Head Coach Andy Sones remarks: "We have a strong core of quality players from the 2008 season that we are looking to add to. We are receiving interest from players currently involved in top college programs so there is a lot of potential there for us to become stronger next summer." The Magic hope to add top college players to their roster to join D1 starts from the 2008 campaign. Monmouth University, Harvard, Cornell, Providence College, Fairfield University and Syracuse were amongst the colleges represented by the Magic in their inaugural campaign.

Players wishing to tryout should contact the club at info@millburnmagic.com and visit www.millburnmagic.com for further information about the Magic organization.

The Millburn Magic team are part of the New Jersey Soccer Group, a management company for a family of soccer based organizations offering a full range of soccer services in New Jersey.

The Millburn Magic is the Northern NJ member of the Women's Premier Soccer League, an independent national league representing the highest level of amateur soccer in the United States. As an amateur league, our players are typically playing with high level college programs through the fall, and play with us from the middle of May through the start of August. The team plays in the East Coast Conference, with the five regional conference winners from around the country playing-off for the National Championship.
